The News

The intelligence brought by the steamer which we publish this morning, though not confirming the reports of the capture of Vicksburg, is highly gratifying, as it does confirm the accounts of Grant's constant progress, and leaving no room for reasonable doubt that before this, the Stars and Stripes are supreme in the boasted Sebastopol of the South west. The contest has been sharp and fearful; every step has been disputed with terrible vigor, but our brave troops on the land and the river have proved themselves worthy of the proud triumph they have gained. We trust that the effect of this grand success may be speedily felt in cutting off the supplies from Texas and in chilling the hearts of the rebels with the fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation now daily coming upon them.

Mr Cole's Position

In mentioning Mr Cole's nomination on Saturday, we expressed our surprise that such a professed Union man should expect copperhead support, for, if he is sincere in his professions, we cannot see how a peace democrat can vote for him. We have since learned that he is disposed to qualify, as a candidate, the views which he was understood to entertain in private life, and that to secure the votes of the peace democracy he will have the aid of the potent lungs of Judge Strong, who (pardon us, Judge,) is about the smallest piece of a democrat that we know of. Such an auxiliary ought to settle Cole's position in the minds of all who love the Union and desire its prosperity, as it is certain that if the Judge is satisfied with him, Union democrats are to be humbugged, while if he puts the Judge forward to slander the action of the Government and say things which he is afraid or unwilling to speak, he intends to deceive somebody else. The truth is, the poor man has to carry water on both shoulders. If he talks Union as he has done, the peace democrats don't want him, while, if he satisfies them, Union men will be afraid of him. In this awkward predicament, unworthy of a free and intelligent patriot of any party, it seems to us he cannot, he ought not to expect the support of men whose loyalty is unconditional, especially when they can be sure that their influence will be counted, without doubt or mistake, on the side of the Government, by giving a cordial support to Mr. Raynor, the candidate of the Union Convention. If Cole is really in favor of crushing the rebellion, how frivolous and foolish in him is it to spend his time and waste his breath in bawling about democracy, in finding fault with measures like the habeas corpus and enrolments acts, and in seeking, for the sake of defeating the Union candidate, to foment opposition to the Government and not merely to the Administration. If he does this, he may secure the support of secessionists, but in so doing he will lose the reputation of a patriot, and compel those who might under other circumstances have confided in his professions, to believe that he would "steal the livery of Heaven to serve the Devil in," and stoop to the crafty acts of a demagogue to secure a personal triumph which must deceive one or the other of the factions whose support he covets. We trust that in any such experiment he will utterly fail, and that the result will compel him to remember the words of Douglas, "In this hour there are no parties, but patriots and traitors." If he belongs to the first his place was in the Union Convention and not with those who, for the sake of keeping up a democratic party, are ready and willing to work with traitors, for no man can pretend that every sympathizer with secession and foe to the Government is not found among democrats, and that such are not seeking to use that party as a means of aiding the rebellion; and though we do not suppose that all democrats who insist on drawing party lines are unfaithful to the Government, yet we are compelled to believe that those who now insist upon political organization and action, in which they fraternize with secessionists secret or open, prefer party success to national prosperity, while the true patriot will nobly stand aloof from any association with treason, and will declare by his actions as well as by his words that to such an assembly his honor shall not be united.

PUBLIC MEETING.—A paper was in circulation on Saturday calling a meeting of our citizens to be held at the Council Chamber tomorrow evening at seven o'clock, to make arrangements for the celebration of the coming Fourth of July. About five hundred signatures were obtained, which number will doubtless be doubled to-day. Our citizens seem to be thoroughly aroused in this matter.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 26th.

News of May 25th

WASHINGTON, May 24th.—Up to 10 o'clock to-night the President has received no further intelligence excepting a telegram from Memphis, dated at 4:00 P M. Nothing later than the morning report of the capture of Vicksburg.

Gen Banks, in a private letter, expresses the expectation that Louisiana will soon be ready to enter the Union again, but this time as a Free State.

The New Orleans correspondent of the World, writing on the 12th, says Port Hudson is to be attacked this week, and during the late attack, had men been landed we might have taken the place. No doubt it is or will be evacuated. It is expected that [illegible] with Banks will reach Bayou Sara from Alexandria. Gen Dudley is ready to march from Baton Rouge. Porter's and Farragut's fleets are above and below Port Hudson.

Bermuda advices give the rumor that Semmes had resigned the command of the Alabama and taken the command of a new Confederate steamer mounting 22 guns. It was announced at Bermuda that the Home Government [British] was about to strengthen its defences.

NEW YORK, May 25th.—The Tribune says the President received a second despatch from Vicksburg, which has not been given to the press, which stated with more precision than the first that the whole of the rebel army had been captured, and a third despatch, (also private,) confirming the accounts of the other two. We consider both these as really trustworthy, as nothing but official or direct information can be had regarding affairs in the Southwest. In the light of previous intelligence, it is hardly possible to doubt that the victory of the long struggle for the great river has at last been won, and Vicksburg is ours.

CHICAGO, May 25th.—Special telegrams contain the following in reference to the battles of the 16th and 17th at Champion Hill, 27 miles east of Vicksburg. On the 16th, early in the morning, McClernand's corps was put in motion, and Hovey's division was on the main road from Jackson to Vicksburg, but the balance of the corps was a few miles to the southward on a parallel road, and McPherson's corps followed Hovey's division closely. At 9 o'clock Hovey discovered the enemy in front, on Champion Hill, to the left of the road near Baker's Creek, apparently in force. Skirmishers were thrown out, and the division advanced cautiously and slowly, to give McPherson's advance, under Logan, time to come within supporting distance. Gen Hovey's division advanced across the open field at the foot of Champion Hill, in line of battle. At 10 o'clock he commenced the battle. The hill itself is covered with timber and is, in fact, but an abrupt terminus of the high ridge running north and south, flanked on both sides by deep ravines and gullies, in many places covered with almost an impenetrable growth of scrub white oak bushes. The rebels appeared deficient in artillery throughout the battle, but opened with rather a heavy fire from a four gun battery of rifled six pounders planted about 400 yards back from the brow of the hill. The woods on both sides of the road leading up the face of the hill and winding back on the ridge a mile or more, were filled with sharpshooters, supported by infantry. Here the battle began in earnest, and as our men entered the large timber it raged terribly from 11 o'clock till between 3 and 4 P M, when Hovey's division carried the heights in a gallant style, making a dash on the first battery, and driving the gunners from their posts and capturing the pieces. The rebels lay thick in the vicinity of the guns. More than half of their horses were killed, and the gun carriages and caissons broken and overturned, while knapsacks, blankets, small arms and other debris, attested the deadly struggle for the ground. The soldiers of the 31st Alabama regiment were captured there. At this juncture the rebels appeared to be reinforced with fresh troops on that wing, and they redoubled their efforts to hold the position and dislodge our troops on the hill. Hovey was slowly driven back to the brow, but a brigade from Gen Quimby was ordered to go and support him, and the ground was speedily reoccupied by us and the rebels were finally repulsed. At the commencement of the engagement, Gen Logan's division marched past the brow of the hill, and forming in line of battle on the right of Hovey, advanced in grand style, sweeping everything before them. At the edge of the woods, in front of Logan, the battle was of the most desperate character imaginable. The rattle of musketry was incessant from the first moment of the engagement, and kept in continuous and deadly roar, in which the reports so blended that a single discharge was rarely heard. Not a man flinched or wavered in this division. All behaved like veterans, and moved to new positions with the conscious tread of victory. Two batteries were captured by this division, and an eight hours hard fighting done to immortalize it. Besides this it captured a large portion of the enemy's small arms. Between 4 and 5 o'clock Gen Osterhaus's and Gen McArthur's divisions came into action on the extreme left and completed what had been so auspiciously carried forward. They were both miles away when the engagement began, but were brought forward with all dispatch possible. The enemy were in full retreat soon after, and the various Federal divisions pursued until 9 o'clock, and are now encamped at Edward's Station, 8 miles beyond the battle ground.

From rebel prisoners we learn that Pemberton commanded in person. Fitzhugh Lee, Gregg, who commanded at the battle near Raymond, and others of note had subordinate commands. We also learn that great dissatisfaction exists towards Gen Pemberton, he being accused by many of selling out to Gen Grant, and also of planning the military operations for the last four weeks so as to insure the latter's success. It is too early yet to do more than approximate our loss, which we think will be about 1,000 killed and wounded, and may prove less, but cannot be much more. But a few officers of distinction are injured. The 24th Indiana regiment lost 100 men; Lieut Col [illegible], commanding, was killed. Not a general or staff officer on our side was hurt. This has been the hottest and most brilliant fight of the Southwest for several months.

Well authenticated cases of rebel barbarity to the wounded men can be enumerated; no less than three different men who were shot down to-day were subsequently sabred by the rebels when they temporarily retook the ground. One then lived to narrate the atrocity, but will scarcely recover.

A despatch from Black River Bridge, 12 miles east of Vicksburg, the 17th, says McClernand's corps marched to this place early this morning. Osterhaus was in advance and found the rebels strongly entrenched on the east bank of the river. The batteries were soon in position, playing on the enemy's works. At 10 o'clock Gen Lawler's brigade, in Carr's division, charged across an open field, 200 yards in width, taking the enemy in front and swarming over into the entrenchments. The movement was utterly irresistible to rebeldom. Seventeen cannons were taken in the inside earthworks, and from 1,500 to 2,000 prisoners. No description can do justice to the intrepidity of the regiments composing the brigade. The rebel fire of artillery and musketry was appalling, but they rushed on to victory, regardless of death, and literally swept everything before them. Gen Marr[illegible]'s Missouri brigade, over 1,200 strong, was cut off by the 11th Wisconsin regiment and surrendered. Gen Vaughn's brigade was also principally captured. The loss of the 11th Wisconsin was slight. The 21st and 23d Iowa, who led in a charge, sustained the principal loss. The 11th Wisconsin also captured a stand of colors.

Furious cannonading continued all day from the rebel batteries on the other side of the river. They fired the bridge to prevent our crossing, but pontoons have been sent to Sherman's corps, and he will probably cross a few miles above here and attack in flank the force opposite, though they number 25,000. Our army is in excellent fighting condition and think themselves invincible. As Gen Grant rode through the field the army everywhere greeted him with tremendous shouting and cheering. This morning two 24 pound howitzers, two 12 pounders and one 6 pound rifled gun were surrendered with the horses, harness and ammunition complete with us. A few miles back of the road these guns became separated from the main body of the rebel army yesterday, and in the retreat were cut off by our advance. The loss in to-day's fighting is not heavy on our side. The rebel killed and wounded is unknown. Their troops did not fight as obstinately to-day as yesterday, and seemed to expect defeat on this side of the river. The wonder is that they were not wholly withdrawn to the other side without an engagement. Gen Osterhaus was slightly wounded, but rode on the field again in [illegible].

CHICAGO, May 25th.—The Times's special telegram from Memphis the 23d, via Cairo, May 24th, says: As soon as it was known that Jackson was taken, a movement was made on Haines' and Chickasaw Bluffs, the Federals being under the command of Gen Sherman. The rebels were thoroughly entrenched and determined to dispute the occupation of the Bluffs to the last. Gen Sherman made his attack in a most brilliant manner, and after a severe fight with heavy loss, he occupied the field, capturing 8,000 prisoners, 100 heavy guns, 1,000 animals, and the camp equipments, ammunition and a large quantity of stores. The loss of the rebels in killed and wounded is awful. The prisoners paroled are sent across the Yazoo river. On Sunday Gen Grant directed an attack to be made on the upper batteries of Vicksburg, and simultaneously the gunboats commenced bombarding the water batteries of that place.

It is stated by a gentleman who was at De Soto, a point immediately opposite Vicksburg, that on Tuesday [May 19th] Grant took the rebel guns on the hill and turned them on the rebels who were at the water batteries. One hundred and fifty prisoners came over to the Point with a flag of truce that day, they being sent from Vicksburg. They state that Gen Grant had possession of the entire line of fortifications surrounding Vicksburg, and that rebel officers told them it was impossible, since the capture of Haines's Bluff, for them to escape. The wildest confusion existed in the town, even soldiers were hurrying from point to point, officers being unable to keep them in line of battle. Speeches were made by the officers assuring the soldiers that they would receive large reinforcements and Grant would be attacked in the rear. They refused to hear anything, and swore they had been sold by their commanding general. The rebel force at Vicksburg is estimated at 30,000. It is stated that Gen Joe Johnston had started to Vicksburg with 10,000 men, but had been cut off and driven back. When the Empress arrived at Milliken's Bend on Wednesday, the firing at Vicksburg and up the Yazoo had entirely ceased, which leaves no doubt of the occupation of the entire fortifications of Vicksburg, as well as the surrounding points, by Gen Grant.

On Tuesday, a large number of transports and a few gunboats were sent up the Yazoo river, for the purpose, it is supposed, of bringing down the wounded prisoners. Gen Frank P Blair sent down to the point for quartermaster's stores and a few hard crackers, stating that his division rested on the Chickasaw Bluff. We are informed that the 72d Wisconsin regiment came out of the engagement with only 84 fighting men.

NEW YORK, May 25.—A Washington special telegram to the Times says the War Department has issued orders requiring all abandoned rebel farms within Gen Heintzelman's districts to be put under cultivation by contrabands.

The President to-day visited the several hospitals, meeting with an enthusiastic reception from the sick and wounded soldiers.

Panama letters say that the war of Guatemala against San Salvador has degenerated into a raid for the sake of plunder. All sorts of atrocities have been committed at the town of Mantapan, by a force of 3,000 men. Report said that a conspiracy to assassinate President Barrios by a person from Guatemala, had been discovered. The party suspected was imprisoned.

From the Richmond Dispatch, of the 23d, we take the following from the correspondent of the Knoxville Register, writing from Cumberland Gap the 18th. He says: "We have reliable information that the enemy (Federal) is advancing on this point with a force of ten regiments, and also that a force has gone via Big Creek Gap. The intention of this move we are not able to tell. If they call on us we shall give them a happy reception."

The Tribune's telegram from Washington the 24th, says that Dr Fritz, surgeon of the 20th New York regiment, arrived yesterday from Fredericksburg, where he was detained to attend the wounded—Gen Lee having given orders that so long as one of our wounded remained, some physician attached to his corps should stay to attend to him. Although our wounded were all over the river more than a week ago, Dr Fritz was unable to return until yesterday. He says the prices of provisions in Fredericksburg are fabulous. Dr Fritz says the rebels killed and wounded on the field where Sedgwick's corps fought outnumbered ours three to one. Additional fortifications are building behind Fredericksburg, as if the rebels expected another attack like those of Burnside and Sedgwick. The most stringent orders are issued forbidding our pickets from conversing or exchanging papers, or holding any communication whatever with the rebels over the river, on pain of being shot. Nevertheless, the practice continues.

BALTIMORE, May 25.—An officer of the flag ship Hartford, in a letter dated May 12th, says: Notwithstanding the reports of the destruction of the Hartford, she is still afloat and maintains her position at the mouth of the Red river.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Gold decidedly lower, opening at 14[illegible] and closing at 142@143.

News of May 26th

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Dispatches received from Admiral Porter detailing the operations of the fleet since Gen Grant commenced his movement to the rear of Vicksburg, say: "So soon as the capture of Haines's Bluff was known to me, I directed the gunboats from below to open fire on the hill batteries, which fire was kept up for two or three hours. At midnight they moved up to the town and opened on it for an hour, and continued at intervals during the night to annoy the garrison. On the 19th, I placed 6 mortars in position on the works, with orders to fire night and day."

At Haines' Bluff the most formidable kind of works covered many acres of ground—the fortifications and rifle pits proper extending about a mile and a quarter. The rebels were a year in constructing them; and all, says Porter's dispatch, were rendered useless in an hour. The gun carriages were burnt, the magazines were blown up and the works generally destroyed. The rebels had ammunition enough there to last a long siege. The Admiral speaks in warm terms of Grant's successes thus far. He says that the fall of Vicksburg is a mere question of a few hours.

CAIRO, May 25—Midnight.—The steamer which left the mouth of the Yazoo on the 21st says that all the steamers at Milliken's Bend had been sent up the Yazoo, in order to be prepared for every possible contingency. The battle still raged, and the forces in rear of the gunboats below and the mortar boats above were all engaged. It was asserted that Gen Grant had taken the batteries on Walnut Hills. The rebel force at Haines Bluff had evacuated it and fallen back inside of the fortifications at Vicksburg before our forces came up. Johnston had evidently intended to do the same thing, but he was prevented by Grant's rapid movements, which got between him and the fortifications, and Johnston was left out in the cold. It is possible that the rebels may hold out a day, or for several days, or even a week.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The World's special Washington dispatch says that private letters from substantial citizens of Louisiana mention that that State will willingly re-enter the Union so soon as the armed rebels of the Confederacy are driven from her borders.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The latest advices from Vicksburg are to Friday night [22d of May]. The city was not taken, but great advantages had been gained. The enemy offered a firm resistance, and it was thought that we would take it next day. Our men had their colors planted on the extreme slope. We had captured 6,000 prisoners and 74 pieces of artillery. Our troops were within a mile and a half of the Court house. The mortar and gunboats in front of Vicksburg are hard at work.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The Washington Star says of the New York Tribune's report of the capture of the whole rebel army at Vicksburg, that "facts within our knowledge satisfy us that it is entirely unfounded."

ST LOUIS, May 26.—A band of guerrillas captured Richmond, Clay county, on Tuesday night. A small Federal force was captured, and the town was robbed of everything. The same band plundered Plattsburg, Clinton county, robbing the Court house of $11,000.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A Murfreesboro dispatch says that the indications are that large bodies of rebel cavalry are going southward. Breckinridge's force has fallen back, and now the rebel troops are between Murfreesboro and Manchester.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The Richmond Enquirer of yesterday has the following:

MOBILE, May 23.—A courier reports that Yazoo City was captured by the Federals, and that the Navy Yard was burned by Confederate troops.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The Richmond Enquirer has Mobile dispatches of the 23d, which claim that the Federals made three assaults on Vicksburg on the day before, but were repulsed. To offset this, Gen Halleck received to-day a dispatch from Memphis, containing the substance of a letter dated the 22d, from Ordnance Officer Lafford to General Hurlbut, which says that our loss was not very heavy for the position we have gained. The rebels make a firm resistance. He thinks we shall have the place to-morrow.

CINCINNATI, May 26.—The rebels crossed the Cumberland yesterday at Fishing creek and Hartford, Ky, but were driven back by our forces, after slight skirmishing.

CHICAGO, May 26.—A private dispatch received in this city to-day, dated near Vicksburg the 24th, says in reference to the city that it had not been captured up to that time. The dispatch says nothing at all as to what was done on Saturday.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Sterling unsettled, 157@158; Gold unsettled, in consequence of the conflicting reports from Vicksburg, closing at 144¼@144¾. Government securities firm—6's of '81, 108¼@108½; 7 30's, 106¾@107¼; Quicksilver Mining Coupons, 46; Pacific Mail, 180.

Mexican Intelligence.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The steamer Roanoke, from Havana, brings news that the French have been obliged to raise the siege of Puebla. The French accounts say that the action is on account of the impossibility of taking the place without reinforcements and heavier guns, while English and Mexican sources report the defeat of the French and their retreat towards, and probably to, Orizaba.

Vera Cruz dates to May 11th have been received by the French steamer. She reports no news had been received from the army since April 27th; that the siege of Puebla has been raised or suspended until the arrival of reinforcements and heavier guns. It has been found impossible to penetrate the city with the artillery they have. The barricades were eighteen feet thick of earth and stones, and the Mexicans had filled the houses of the first line of parapets with earth. The Mexicans again occupy Fort San Javier, which they are repairing.

The British frigate Immortalite brought news that the French had been defeated and were retiring to Orizaba. It is understood they go into quarters at Orizaba to wait reinforcements and heavier guns from France. Operations cannot be resumed before October. Report says about $1,000,000 from Vera Cruz had been captured by the Mexican guerrillas.

[It is not believed here that the French have abandoned the siege of Puebla. On the 30th of April Ortega, in Puebla, advised Comonfort that the French continued the bombardment, though less vigorously than previous to the repulse of the 25th. They were also digging ditches and undermining, in evident preparation for another assault. This appears to be later news from Puebla than any received via Havana, and it comes entirely from Mexican sources.—ED BULLETIN.]

European Intelligence

NEW YORK, May 25.—The latest European dates are to Sunday, May 17th.

The London Times city article argues that the protraction of the war, or even the subjugation of the South, must involve the Federal finances in ruin. It says these facts are being recognized in Europe, and renders the possibility of effecting a Federal loan entirely out of the question.

The continental political news is unimportant. The Polish question was unchanged in France. Russia is negotiating upon a scheme for an European Congress, Russia having accepted the principle in the project for a conference.

Jamaica letters received from England by the West India mail reported that on the 7th of April a sea fight took place at Pedro Bluff between a large sea steamer strikingly like the Alabama and three other vessels. Heavy firing was heard at 9 A M, and the vessels were distinctly to be seen from shore pouring broadsides into each other. The firing lasted until 2 P M. No particulars are known.

The London Army and Navy Gazette says that the Federal efforts recently made in London to raise a loan have not been successful.

ARRIVAL OF THE SIERRA NEVADA.—The steamer Sierra Nevada, three days from San Francisco, arrived at this port on Saturday evening at four o'clock. We are indebted to the purser for the following:

MEMORANDA.—Steamship Sierra Nevada, P Connor commander, left San Francisco May 27th at 4 P M. May 28th, [illegible] P M, passed U S steamer Saginaw bound down; [illegible] P M passed steamer Brother Jonathan. [illegible] day 6:30 P M. May 30th, 6:30 A M, arrived at Astoria.

PASSENGERS.—Mr Sauvier, lady and servant, J Sterne, [illegible] Tugardin, Hess Berg, Mr Eberhard, A M Starr and lady, Mrs Cook, Miss A Warner, A R Baldwin, Mr Talbot, Mr Cook and two children, Geo Thatcher, Geo Wright, S Levy, Mr Berry, [illegible] and family, Mr E Lapham, [illegible] Hinsdale, J Nugenbell, B Goldstone, Hefron and lady, Mrs J H Craig, Mrs Geo Blair, A A Mix, lady and servant, A Meyers, H Rosenfeld, Mrs Harris, R W Kilby, [illegible] and two children, Mrs Gillespie, Mrs Garrish, Mrs Byrne, J M Simpson, J F Simpson, Mrs Shattuck, Mrs Mathieson, Mrs [illegible] Shaw, Mrs Tilton, W Nevison, Mr McQuade, Mrs E Waldem and two children, Mrs McNab, [illegible] children, Mrs Rogers, Mrs C Newman, I A Smith, J A Barrow, Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger, and 72 others.

PERSONAL.—Everybody welcomed our friend Al Starr, who returned from America on Saturday, and wisely, did not come alone. His friends heartily congratulated him on his marriage and safe arrival, and late in the evening the Mechanic's Band furnished an admirable serenade at the Dennison House, to which he responded in abundant terms of [illegible] purity and excellence.

A COSTLY FLAG.—We were shown, yesterday, a very neat and beautiful banner, just received from New York, by the Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society. The material, construction, design and embellishment of this banner is very fine, elegant and costly; besides, we doubt not, appropriate and appreciative for those whom it is intended. The inscriptions on the banner are as follows: Upon one side (the front) is a life-sized portrait of Robert Emmet, the Great Irish Patriot, above and below which are the words —"I desire to secure for my country that guarantee which Washington conquered for America."—"When my country takes her place among the Nations of the Earth, then, and not 'till then, let my epitaph be written. I have done."—On the opposite side is inscribed —"Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society, Feb 21, 1860." "We visit the sick and bury the dead." In the centre is a large picture of a harp, surrounded with THIRTY FOUR STARS. The cost of this banner is said to be $400.

THE GLASS BLOWERS.—We were pleased to see such a large gathering of school children at the glass blowing exhibition on Saturday afternoon last, and the pleasing smile on every countenance gave certain evidence of satisfaction at seeing the wonderful process of making such pretty things out of glass. A very fair audience of ladies and gentlemen again visited the exhibition in the evening. The troupe go to Vancouver to-day, and will exhibit in that place to-night and to-morrow night, after which they will visit Dalles City, exhibiting there on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights. We desire to say to our neighbors of Vancouver and Dalles that if they wish to see something beautiful, pleasing and instructive they will certainly not be disappointed in this show,—it is worth going to see by every one. We will further say that we have never seen a more respectable, courteous and honorable company of exhibitors than those composing this troupe. Mr. Graffam and lady and Mr. E. B. Kelly, the Glass Blowers and Glass Workers, and Mr [illegible], Agent of the troupe, are, each and all, kind, genteel, honorable and high-minded people, worthy the confidence and esteem of every one, and such is their character wherever they go. With our friend "Ned" especially, we [illegible] our best wishes for his success and pros[illegible]

TEMPORARY LAND OFFICE AT WALLA WALLA.—Through the exertions of Mr. Parker of Walla Walla, who will see that money is raised to pay all reasonable expenses, an arrangement has been made, in accordance with the permission of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, for the Register and Receiver of the Land Office at Vancouver to go to Walla Walla and receive the notification of claimants to the public lands in that section, thus enabling those who could not come to Vancouver to secure their pre-emption rights prior to the public sale of those lands.

SAILS.—The Sierra Nevada is advertised to sail from this port, for San Francisco via Victoria, at 4 o'clock on Tuesday morning.

We received yesterday a copy of the complimentary resolutions passed by Columbian Engine Company, No 3, relative to their visit to the Dalles, but owing to the length of our Eastern news, we had no room for them to-day. A "corrected" copy will appear to-morrow.

POSTPONED.—The auction sale by Mansfield of the furniture, &c., of the Shakespeare Hotel is postponed till Wednesday next.

LEGAL.

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all net [illegible] any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c. necessary to carry on the business. But no farmer, merchant, [illegible] banker, or any person, has a right to deduct [illegible] expenses from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, and ending on the evening of December 31st, 1862. Every one shall make up a record of their income, gains or profits for that year. As to the income from sources of income such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks interest, &c. (they having already paid the income tax), are not again taxed. It is therefore necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations [illegible] three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the net profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may [illegible] of his business [illegible] all and over [illegible] business, nevertheless he must pay tax on all net business profits except [illegible] And so with a salary all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their effects, and judge of their virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J C AYER Sir I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect, ED W PREBLE Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON D C, 7 Feb, 1856.

Sir I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours

ALONZO BALL, M D, Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO J GRIFFIN Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J V Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours J V HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G MEACHAM, M.D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
